AND

The State of Andhra Pradesh, rep. by Public Prosecutor, High Court of A.P., Hyderabad.

Respondent

The Petition coming on for orders as to admission upon perusing the Memo of grounds filed herein and the order of the High Court dated. 12-06-2003 made in Crl.M.P.No. 3817/2003 and upon hearing the arguments of Sri A.Prabhakar Rao, Advocate for the Petitioner and of the Public Prosecutor on behalf of the Respondent.

The Court made the following ORDER:

" Heard learned counsel for the parties. On 24-7-2002 the District Collector, Warangal passed an order confiscating the stocks of the value of Rs. 35,068/-. The stocks, in fact, were 100 quintals of rice. According to the Collector, this 100 quintals of rice was meant for food for work and had to be given to the labour in exchange of the work, but it had found its way to the petitioner's rice mill. Statement of driver of the vehicle was also recorded who stated that the contractor had sold this rice to the present petitioner. In my view a case should have been registered by the police against all concerned and should have been investigated.

Therefore let a copy of the order of Collector dt. 24-7-2002 be sent to the Superintendent of Police concerned who shall direct the registration of the case and investigation in accordance with law. The learned Public Prosecutor shall appraise this Court of the registration of the case.

List after two weeks."
